Rod attended the meeting and explained that he had to release the full time Child Support Deputy and would like to change that position to a part-time position. He stated that he is working with Stan Levco from Vanderburgh County to fill the part-time position. He feels he will be asset to Perry County because of his experience. He explained that this will be a savings to the county, because Mr. Laevco will only be working 2 or 3 days a week and this will save the county having to pay benefits. He explained that he and Mr. Levco have agreed that this part-time position will be for at least one year, and after that they will reevaluate the position. Steve made the motion to approve the transfer request and Chet seconded the motion. Motion carried 7-0.
